

Hi Jayne

Ya, you should take good rest before the next trip.

I didnt get time to rest well as I got work the next day. But it want tiring though. haha..

It was quite an adventure tour in the South East and the way it was organized was amazing. For most tours I have gone for, there were lags as they don't have much things planned. But for this tour I felt the time wasn't enough, which is a good thing as we could visit and experience many things in 3 days. Thanks for everything. Would love to join for the Words On Wheels's next trip too.

Thanks again.

Cheers,
Shyam
